Alex Chan has made community interaction a priority, selflessly giving his own time to participate in volunteer opportunities with charitable organizations that make a difference in the lives of everyday Canadians. Through a positive attitude and hands-on approach, Alex has made a lasting impact on his community and has inspired others to follow his leadership.

Foresters™ heritage as a fraternal benefit society – a member-based life insurance provider for everyday families – is the foundation for our guiding principle: enriching the lives of our members, their families and the communities they live in. From the very outset more than 135 years ago, our fraternal structure has enabled Foresters to channel our resources in three directions:

- Assisting members and their families
- Encouraging fellowship and cooperation among all members
- Offering financial strength to our communities while enhancing opportunities for family time and supporting children's health

More than a century later, this continues to set Foresters apart. We're not another faceless financial institution. Together with Alex Chan, we stand for something more. Foresters is an active part of your life, at every stage.
